

We love NY, too.

That's why we've acquired interests in 125 Broad Street.

We may be known for our properties surrounding Manhattan, but we love the city, too. That's why Mack-Cali has acquired interests in 125 Broad Street in Manhattan, a prime 40-story class A waterfront office tower. This purchase marks our entry into Manhattan – and we're thrilled to be here.

125 Broad Street is a perfect complement to our properties on the Jersey City waterfront, and an impressive addition to our multi-state Northeast office portfolio. With the acquisition of approximately 550,000 square feet in 125 Broad Street, Mack-Cali now owns or has interests in 302 properties totaling 34.8 million square feet throughout the Northeast.
