Being needed is cause enough

Who are we?

We are Planned Parenthood Association of Bucks County!

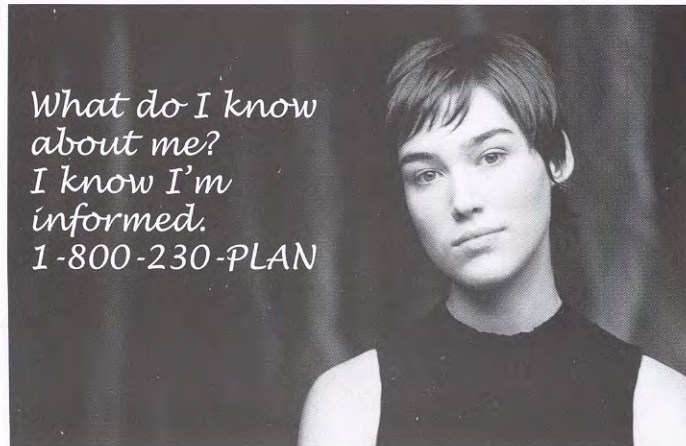

We believe in the fundamental right of each person to manage his or her own reproductive health.

To assist you...

We provide comprehensive reproductive healthcare while protecting individual privacy.

We provide educational and professional training programs to enhance understanding of sexuality.

We advocate and organize in our community to ensure access to these services.

Our medical offices are staffed by dedicated and compassionate nurse practitioners, physician's assistants, counselors and physicians trained in reproductive health issues. We stress preventive healthcare and patient education.

Our education and training department teaches about healthy sexuality and provides tools to make responsible life choices through a program of comprehensive sexuality education. Tobacco prevention and cessation also available. Call 215/785-4594 to find out more about specialized education programs and information.

Our public affairs department manages the Responsible Choices Action Network – individuals interested in helping promote reproductive choice and access to services – an e-mail network, public speakers, information about legislation and current events, as well as mobilizing young people through Vox --Voices for Planned Parenthood.

Our resource center in Doylestown provides an extensive library of books, brochures, and videos on pregnancy and parenting, reproductive health, STIs and HIV, self-esteem, teen topics, racism, homophobia, and more.

Our rainbow room youth center in Doylestown is the only center in Bucks County for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning, queer youth and allies. Weekly meetings and referrals. Call 215-348-0558, ext. 65 for info.
